Position Overview

Sylogist is stepping up its pace of growth, both organically and through M&A. As a Corporate Development Analyst, you would help make that happen. The job involves research and outreach to build a pipeline of potential acquisition targets, as well as helping to evaluate and execute these opportunities. You will work with a highly collaborative core team, and partner with others across the company. This position reports to the Director of Business Development and Operations Strategy.

Responsibilities Include:

- Research and analyze sectors of interest, developing an understanding of key market dynamics and trends.
- Identify and establish contact with potential acquisition targets.
- Assist in the evaluation of potential acquisitions, and other business development opportunities.
- Support due diligence, project analysis, and corporate strategy initiatives.
- Other duties as assigned.

Desired Knowledge, Skills and Experience Include:

- Bachelor's degree (Business Communication or similar is an asset)
- Comfortable working on cross-functional teams, often remotely
- Able to independently research, identify, and establish contact with potential acquisition targets
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills
- A self-starter, who can make things happen with moderate guidance

What we look for in you

- You like to have fun!
- You have a positively great attitude.
- You have a broad set of technical skills.
- You want to be a creator.
- You know you don't have all the answers but have a deep desire to learn everything.
- You have strong leadership skills; people want to work with you.
- You are an intuitive problem solver.
- You are proactive, take initiative and thrive in a fast-paced, empowered work environment.
